TEMPERANCE COLUMN WHO WANT SALOONS IN LINCOLN COUNTY?

The following statistics show who it is that are asking that the saloon with all its horrors be brought back to Stanford. These figures furnish food for thought. They show who are in the lead in this movement and whom the people who advocate the restoration of the saloon are following.

Take, for example, the three voting precincts which include Stanford, known as Nos. 1, 2, and 3. The petitions filed with the County Judge from these three precincts contain the names of 172 white men, 189 colored and 134 whose race is unknown. These white and colored petitioners paid taxes this year amounting to only $1,003.49. The taxable property of these three precincts is approximately $3,000,000, exclusive of the banks, whose capital and surplus are $298,000, and assessable. The taxes of these three precincts are more than $33,900. So that the petitioners referred to represent less than 1-33d of the taxable property of these precincts.

A number of reputable voters have asked that their names be withdrawn, claiming in many cases that they signed under misrepresentation and misunderstanding as to the object of the petitions. It is clear that it is not the men who bear the burdens of taxation that are asking for saloons in Stanford. It is not the men whose taxes maintain the white and colored schools, who support the churches, who build the streets and sidewalks, who pay the judges and jurors and who build the residences and public buildings that adorn and beautify the town. They are not the men who do the business of the country, who buy the grain and stock, who carry on the commerce of the town and county.

The law wisely provides that a man who has signed one of these petitions in an unthoughtful moment, perhaps without realizing just what he was doing, may withdraw his name, upon mature deliberation. Men are often swept into things hurriedly, without reflection, who afterward see their mistake and are glad to correct their errors when they have a chance to do so.

It is a very serious thing for a man to aid in any way a thing that is wrong. Everybody admits the evil of the saloon. Nobody even pretends that the saloon is a good thing. The saloon has no defenders. The only excuse made for it is that it is a lesser evil, and this is not true. Be it remembered that the men who sign the petitions for an election are the people who will be responsible for all the evil that the saloons will produce. They will be responsible for every drunken debauch, for every quarrel, every brawl, every murder, every crime that will be committed under the influence of the liquors sold over those bars, because they and they alone have made it possible for saloons to exist. They are not responsible for the evil that the blind tiger does, because they did not bring it into existence, but they are the fathers of the saloon.

The face of every broken-hearted mother, whose son is made a drunkard in these saloons will haunt the men who signed these petitions. They stand related to the saloons that may be opened in Stanford as the signers of the Declaration of Independence do to our liberties. Without these brave men we could have no free government; without these petitioners we can have no saloons. Men, as you love your home, as you love your neighbor, as you love your country, go and undo the great crime you have committed against all these, by withdrawing your name and thereby reclaim your self-respect and the respect of all mankind.

Good Advice for Preacher.
 Among the stories related by the late Rev. Dr. A. F. Pierson was one of a marble-cutter, with chisel and hammer, working a block of stone into a statue. A preacher who was looking on said: "I wish I could, on hearts of stone, deal such transforming blows!" "Perhaps you might," was the workman's quiet answer, "if, like me, you worked on your knees."

STOCK LAW ELECTION.

Regular term Lincoln County Court, held August 14th, 1911, Hon. Jas. P. Bailey, Judge, presiding.

In the matter of the petition of the citizens of the Waynesburg Magisterial District, asking for an election to be held on the question of stock running at large:

A petition signed by C. M. Thompson, Morris Wall, S. B. Chevillet, G. A. Walter, Maurice Singleton, W. G. Haggard, W. Waters, W. D. Johnson, J. A. Singleton, J. A. Hart, J. B. McKee, G. H. Cannon, J. W. Thompson, George Williams, E. W. May, Wm. Morgan, Richard Maynard, Wash Spaw, H. W. Waddle, B. R. Denton, J. R. Blewens, R. Y. Ballard, Seth Reynolds, Bill Spradlin and A. E. Morgan, and constituting more than 20 voters of the Waynesburg magisterial district, was this day filed in open court, asking a submission of the question whether cattle, or any species thereof shall be permitted to run at large on the public highways and unenclosed lands of the Waynesburg Magisterial district, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the persons whose names are signed to said petition are legal voters in said district, and that same is signed by more than 20 voters thereof, and that the law relative to the calling of said election has been complied with by said petitioners, it is therefore ordered that an election be held in said district at each voting place therein, namely, Waynesburg Precinct No. 1, Waynesburg Precinct No. 2, Waynesburg Precinct No. 3, at the regular November election, 1911 (to be held on the 7th day of November, 1911) upon the following question, to-wit: "Are you in favor of making it unlawful for cattle, including horses, asses, mules, sheep, goats and swine to run at large on the public highways and unenclosed lands of the Waynesburg Magisterial district?"

The officers of election in each precinct of said district are directed to open a poll at the next November election for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the voters of said district upon said question, and the clerk of this court is directed to have printed on the ballots for each precinct in which the vote is to be taken the question above set out, and there shall also be published 20 days before the election in at least four issues of the Stanford Interior Journal, a notice of the said election, which shall give the date of said election, the question to be submitted to the voters of said district, and such facts as may be necessary to give validity to said act.

 A Copy. Attest: G. B. COOPER, Clerk Lincoln County Court.

Life's Responsibilities.
 The man called to a great work must not waste his life in trivial things. He must not act like the keeper of the lighthouse who gave to the people in the cabins about him the oil which was intended for the mighty lanterns of the sea.—Master Light.

IN MEMORIAM

Miss Mecie Horton is dead and her friends very deeply mourn her loss. Deceased was only 21 years of age and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Horton of Eubanks. She was a most beautiful young woman and well liked by all who knew her. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents over the loss of their daughter. She is survived by her parents, three sisters and four brothers.

One precious to their heart is gone. The voice they loved is still; A place is vacant in their home, Which no one else can fill.

The golden gates were opened wide, A gentle voice said "come," And the angels on the other side, Welcomed their darling home.

Earth has lost its look of gladness, Heaven seems to us more bright, Since the spirit of our loved one, Took its happy homeward flight.

Mecie is gone but not forgotten, Never will her memory fade; Sweet thoughts will ever linger, Around the grave where she is laid Treatment of Heart Wounds.

 Incised wounds of the heart are no longer beyond the reach of surgical science. It seems almost a cry back to mediocrity to recall the time, when the suggestion of heart surgery would have been considered an chimera.
